SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE TO
UniServe Science News

Since 1995, UniServe Science News has been the vehicle to keep Australian science academics up-to-date with current practice and developments in the use of information technology in university science teaching.

Each issue of UniServe Science News contains:
• articles on the use of software and the Web in university science teaching, both in Australia and overseas;
• software and web site reviews;
• reports on teaching developments incorporating information technology;
• details of conferences; and
• information on works in progress.

ALSO AVAILABLE

Other publications are available at $11.00 (Australia); or $15.00 (overseas) per copy.

These include (subject to availability):
• Back issues of UniServe Science News;
• Issues of CAL-laborate (the international newsletter); and
• Proceedings of the national workshops.

Notification of change of address or non-receipt of publications should be made to BioSciCH@mail.usyd.edu.au or PhySciCH@mail.usyd.edu.au
